

Three Key Challenges for the Federal Government:
Cyber Security, the Federal Budget, and Human Capital

A Free Event in Washington DC for Federal Government Personnel, Invited Private Sector Personnel and TIAW Global Forum attendees.

When: Wednesday, October 21, 2015 8:00 am - 12:00 pm
Where: Hamilton Crowne Plaza
1001 14th Street NW
Washington DC 20005

Registration: Go to TIAW.org – Click on REGISTRATION (in green box) on home page: Select Member or Non-Member, then Select Option E for the Pre-Global Forum Breakfast Session (complete the registration pages).

Agenda:

8:00 - 8:30 am: Networking and Breakfast

8:30 – 10:00 am: Human Capital Challenges in the Federal Government (panel discussion)

Kimberly Holden: A leader in facing today's human capital challenges in the federal government. She is the Deputy Associate Director for Recruitment and Hiring at OPM and has held many government leadership positions.

Joan Melanson: An authority on long term care insurance. Joan is the Director of Program Promotion for the Federal Long Term Care Insurance Program at Long Term Care Partners LLC.

Peter Sherer: A professional in the area of career transitioning. Peter has coached over 450 public and private sector executives in career transitioning, performance improvement and organizational restructuring.

10:00 – 10:45 am: Status of the Federal Budget – Were We Are and Where We Are Going (Agency Winners and Losers)

Cameron Leuthy: An expert on the federal budget and the political environment. Cameron is a Senior Budget Analyst at Bloomberg Government and served as a senior executive at OMB.

10:45 – 11:30 am: Cyber Security Challenges for the Federal Government

Alexa Iversen: An expert on cyber security and President of Alexa Strategies. Previous positions include CIO of the Department of Education, Chief of System Security Engineering at NSA, DoD Computer Network Defense Architect in OSD, and founding member of the Joint Task Force for Computer Network Defense (formerly Cyber Command).

11:30 - Noon: Networking

Special thanks to corporate sponsors: Long Term Care Partners and NVE, Inc.

For more information about TIAW Corporate Sponsorship, contact Dr. Andrew Uscher (auscher71@gmail.com) (571-338-0458) or admin@tiaw.org.